

Office of Inspector General
1st Quarter 2018

Introduction

This quarter focused on receiving and reviewing complaints, working on several officer involved shooting investigations, and a review of the Sheriff’s Department property and evidence facility and processes.

Complaint Summary for the First Quarter 2018

The following tables represent the method complaints were received by the Office of Inspector General and the actions taken, such as referred to another agency for non-Sheriff’s Department personnel, sent to the Sheriff’s Professional Standards Division for investigation, or investigated by the OIG.

The Office of Inspector General received 15 complaints during the 1st quarter of 2018. This compares to 20 complaints the previous quarter. Nearly half of the complaints were submitted using the OIG on-line web form. Individuals wishing to remain anonymous accounted for two complaints.

Of the total complaints received, nine were sent to the Sheriff's Department for investigation or information and two were forwarded to other agencies. There was no officer involved shooting or in-custody death during the quarter. Of note is a deputy under investigation for elder abuse.

Tasks in-progress

- Review of the Sheriff's Department complaint investigative and findings process.
- Continued work reviewing the Sheriff's evidence and property warehouse.
- Working with the Sheriff's Department in the development of an early intervention system. The department is in the process of acquiring the software.
- Preparing the 2017 OIG Annual Report.
- Review of five in-custody deaths from 2017.
- Review of 11 officer involved shootings from 2017.