

Office of Inspector General
3rd Quarter 2017

Introduction

This quarter focused on receiving and reviewing complaints, working on several officer involved shooting investigations, and a review of the Sheriff’s Department property and evidence facility and processes.

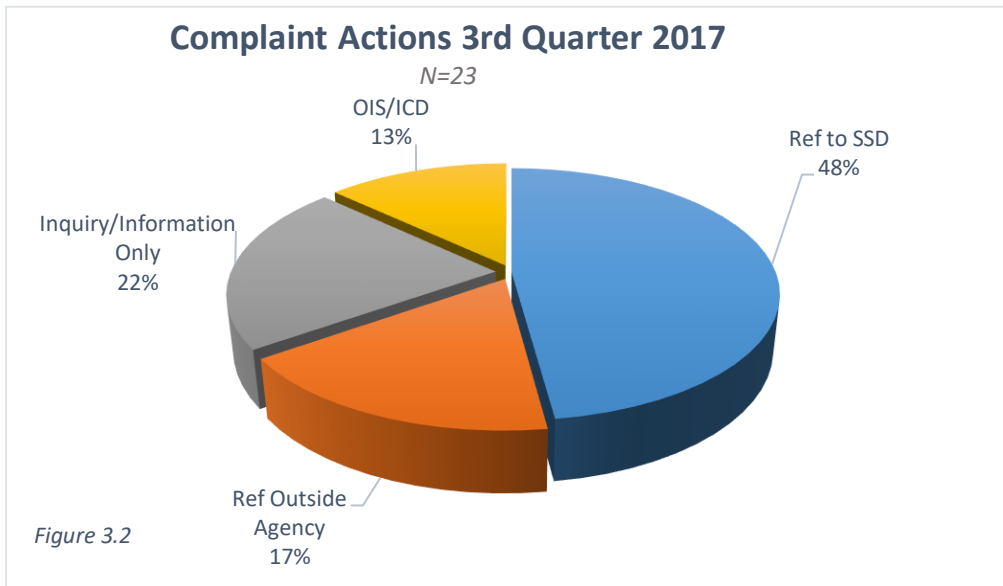

Complaint Summary for the Third Quarter 2017

The following tables represent the method complaints were received by the Office of Inspector General and the actions taken, such as referred to another agency for non-Sheriff’s Department personnel, sent to the Sheriff’s Professional Standards Division for investigation, or investigated by the OIG.

The Office of Inspector General received 23 complaints during the 3rd quarter of 2017. This compares to 31 complaints during the 3rd quarter last year and is consistent with a downward trend in complaints when compared to 2016. Fourteen (61%) of the complaints were submitted using the OIG on-line web form. Individuals wishing to remain anonymous accounted for six complaints.

Of the total complaints received, 11 were sent to the Sheriff’s Department for investigation or information and 4 were forwarded to other agencies. There were three officer involved shootings during the quarter. One shooting involved an off-duty deputy in another county and one resulted in the tragic death of Deputy Bob French.

Notable Incidents/Reviews

Sheriff Jones has requested a review of the Sheriff’s Department evidence and property facility to ensure the Department is meeting contemporary standards related to facilities, policies, and practices.

Tasks in-progress

- Review of the Sheriff’s Department complaint investigative and findings process.
- Continued work reviewing the Sheriff’s evidence and property warehouse.
- Working with the Sheriff’s Department in the development of an early intervention system. A site visit was made to Alameda County Sheriff’s Department to view their early intervention system.
- Review of several officer involved shootings.
